S: When you see ^C her in the evening in a bright green dress

S: Walking ^F fast down the hallway you might never guess ^C

S: That the lady has a weakness she's reluctant to confess. ^C ^G

N: No, you might not notice when I'm dancing reels ^C

N: That I made it through the airport on a set of wheels, ^F ^C

N: And I'm still not certain that I like the way that it feels. ^G ^C C7 – E7

N: We were wheelin' our way through the airport crowd; ^C

SN: And the way it made her feel made her want to weep out loud. ^C ^G

N: 'Cause we were cuttin' past the line at the TSA ^C

N: Asking healthy young people to get out of our way ^F ^C

S: Savin' her strength to make it through another day. ^G ^C G7

S: When she has a good day she can walk a mile ^C

S: Dance through the evening with grace and style ^F ^C

S: Greet her lover at the door with a tight embrace and a smile; ^C ^G

S: Next minute she's collapsing like she's half-way dead ^C

S: With a fire in her body and an aching head ^F ^C

S: And she'll pay with pain and the rest of the weekend in bed. ^G ^C C7 – E7

N: So with my lover right beside me lookin' calm and cool ^F

N: I walk up to the counter feeling like a fool ^C

N: And try to tell myself that a wheelchair's only a tool. ^C ^G

N: Soon I'm wheelin' past the line at the TSA ^C

N: Feeling weird watching people getting out of my way ^F ^C

N: But it's the easiest journey in years to the end of the day. ^G ^C G7

S: Well, her ^Cbody is a battleground and life's a war,
 S: And she's ^Flost against her ^Climits many times before;
 S: But she's still ^Cfightin' with a few ^Gnew tricks in store;
 N: Because a ^Cwheelchair is a weapon, not a mark of defeat
 N: And she can ^Fstay standing longer with some ^Ctime off her feet
 N: The ^Gbattle isn't over, and ^Cwinning will be ^{C7 - E7}sweet.

SN: With her ^Flover right behind her lookin' fierce and proud
 SN: They'll be ^Ccutting a swath through the airport crowd
 SN: The ^Cway it makes her feel will make her want to laugh out ^Gloud.
 SN: 'Cause she'll be ^Cwheelin' past the line at the TSA
 SN: Watchin' ^Ftough young punks scurry out of her ^Cway
 SN: Savin' ^Gher strength to make it through another ^Cday. ^{G7}
 N: Yeah, ^{G6}savin' my strength—to ^Gfight another ^Cday. ^{FC}
