D G
 My wife left me early Monday morning,
 Packed her bags and walked right out the door
 D A
 Sayin' "You don't treat me better
 G
 Than that wreck you call a truck.
 D A D
 I've had it and I won't take any more".
 D G
 Now I spent the evening drinking, feeling sorry for myself
 D A
 I guess that maybe what she said was true
 D
 But just as I was thinking
 G
 That things couldn't get much worse
 D A A
 My pickup truck drove off and left me too

 D D5 G
 Don't ever buy a self-driving truck
 D
 If it decides to leave you
 A
 You'll be clean out of luck
 D G D
 But if you ever get one, be sure to treat it right,
 A D
 I wonder who'll be riding her tonight

 D G
 I went in to town next morning on my tractor
 D A
 The road was dusty and it took me half a day
 D
 I went into the bar and
 G
 asked if anyone had seen
 D A D
 A truck without a driver pass that way.

 Don't ever buy a self-driving truck

 You'll be clean out of luck

 I wonder who'll be riding her tonight

Everybody laughed at me and and said "it serves you right" G

My pickup met my wife at her hotel;

They both cleaned up real pretty

G
And they took off headed west

D A D
With a red dress and a brand new camper shell

Don't ever buy a self-driving truck

D
It might run off with your wife and then

You'll be clean out of luck

D G D
I've just myself to blame because I didn't treat them right,

D A D
I wonder where they're gonna be tonight.
